IPA Policy Manual

Chapter 5 – Association Operations

5.2-AP   Website Rules & Procedures

Rules of the IPA website are as follows:

- Topics shall relate to professional matters of PK-12 education only.

- Make sure the subject of your message is clear and specific so that people can quickly decide if they want to read it.

- Engaging in unreasonable behavior or disrupting the general flow of discussion is prohibited.

- Profanity, sexual content or materials that are prohibited by local, State or federal laws are strictly prohibited.

- The IPA website does not allow spam, junk mail, chain letters or other unsolicited posts, commercial or otherwise.

- Respect copyright laws when posting and forwarding information. If you are in doubt as to whether something is copyrighted, check with the author.

- Respect the privacy of participants. Do not give out the private email addresses or contact information of others.